SHE laughs at her own joke, but sees HANNAH's face and stops.

HANNAH

That was a really stupid joke.

A pause.

Tell me another one.

SCENE 27

KEVIN T.

Everywhere you look, there are people from around the globe. Going back and forth for phones—or showers. Grabbing something from Shoppers. I'm getting coffee at a gas station on the main drag—and suddenly the entire place goes quiet...

#7G—Before Prayer

EVERYONE on stage stands still. KEVIN T. turns around, looking.

(KEVIN T.)

And nobody moves. Even the people outside are standing still. And I look up at the TVs and realize—it's a national moment of silence in America. And all of these Newfoundlanders—these people from another country—they maintain that moment of silence. I don't know if that would happen back home—at a busy gas station on the main drag—but it happened here.

HANNAH

Beulah walks me to church—and when we get there, I light a candle for my son.

BEULAH

And I do too.

#8—Prayer Company

KEVIN T.

I suddenly realized what that music was from my dream—it was an old hymn from when
