When I was li-ttle, my No-nna would bake It - a - li - an dol-ci, she taught me__ to make. Pan-e-

9 JIM: Adore Panettone ...

tto - ne, pan-fort - e, __ the fam - i - ly re - ci - pes__ flowed. I loved Mar-i - to - zzi, my fav - ourite of all. A sweet crea-my bri-oche, rolled in - to__ a ball. But this was a bun that de - mand-ed__ a-tten-tion and__ time.__ I'd 21

13

17

sit by the o - ven, en - grossed in__ the dough. And No-nna said dar-ling just watch it grow grow grow. Bun in the o-ven grow grow grow.

25

31 JIM: Good luck, Francesca. FRANCESCA: Thanks. FRANCESCA

Bun in the o - ven__ grow. Ita - li - an fa-mily is big, like our food. And I al-ways knew that I longed for a brood. So when I met Mike I said strap your-self in for a ride. So we start-ed to try. We tried for a year then we went to the doct - or and she made it clear it would-n't be ea - sy but we were de - ter-mined to try. So out went the bis - cuits the booze__ and the bread. We signed up to yo-ga, ate kale on our head and made love so of - ten the neigh - bours__ they had to 59

37

41

46

49

53

56

com - plain. And then came the treat-ment the N - H - S way and I jabbed in my be-lly, like, three times a day. With my legs in the air Mike would 66

63

cra - dle me clo - sely and say rit. - - - -

69 A tempo

Grow grow grow. Bun in the o-ven. Grow grow grow.

75 Bun in the ov-en We're wai-ting for you to grow. But 81 life as we know it has o - ther i - deas. And one day a month I'd be

84 drown-ing in tears so I picked up my pi-nny and found my - self start - ing to

87 bake. And it helped with the pain, know-ing I had a form of esc - ape as I

91 rolled out those balls to their child hood shape I was calm.

BEN
Each night I have a dream that he'll come to me with his pier - cing stare,

He'll have that twin - kle in his eye.
